TRADITIONS CHECKLIST from the AA Grapevine

These questions were originally published in the AA Grapevine in conjunction with a series on the Twelve Traditions that began in November 1969 and ran through September 1971. While they were originally intended primarily for individual use, many AA groups have since used them as a basis for wider discussion.

Practice These Principles...

Tradition Four: Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or AA as a whole.

1. Do I insist that there are only a few right ways of doing things in AA?
2. Does my group always consider the welfare of the rest of AA? Of nearby groups? Of Loners in Alaska? Of Internationalists miles from port? Of a group in Rome or El Salvador?
3. Do I put down other members' behavior when it is different from mine, or do I learn from it?
4. Do I always bear in mind that, to those outsiders who know I am in AA, I may to some extent represent our entire beloved Fellowship?
5. Am I willing to help a newcomer go to any lengths -- his lengths, not mine -- to stay sober?
6. Do I share my knowledge of AA tools with other members who may not have heard of them?

c. THE AA GRAPEVINE INC.

Concept Four:

“Throughout our Conference structure, we ought to maintain at all responsible levels a traditional “Right of Participation,” taking care that each classification or group of our world servants shall be allowed a voting representation in reasonable proportion to the responsibility that each must discharge.”

Bill's Prayer

I was to test my thinking by the new God-consciousness within. Common sense would thus become uncommon sense. I was to sit quietly when in doubt, asking only for direction and strength to meet my problems as He would have me. Never was I to pray for myself, except as my requests bore on my usefulness to others. Then only might I expect to receive. But that would be in great measure.

My friend promised when these things were done I would enter upon a new relationship with my Creator; that I would have the elements of a way of living which answered all my problems. Belief in the power of God, plus enough willingness, honesty and humility to establish and maintain the new order of things, were the essential requirements. Simple, but not easy; a price had to be paid. It meant destruction of self-centeredness. I must turn in all things to the Father of Light who presides over us all.”

District 14-140 Update

Hi everybody, Paul S. here. Just a note on AA in exotic places like Ash Fork, AZ.

Kevin Mc. and I visited the 7:30pm “Tuesday Winners” group. It was a really good meeting on the topic of anonymity.

There were 14 people there; 3 from Williams; 1 from Seligman, and of course 2 from Prescott.

We took flyers of local Prescott and Prescott Valley events, which were appreciated.

The meeting is held in the Community Center, 526 Lewis St. which is located near the water tower on the north side of the street.

AA is alive and well in Ash Fork. The drive isn't bad at all, unless it's dark and raining. (smile)

Love, peace, and strength,
Paul S., DCM 14-140
